TROUBLES PILE UP FOR MAN ON TRIAL IN COURT THIS MORNING

An Adams County jury will have to decide whether Roland L. Webster, Harrisonburg, Va., formerly of Orrtanna, R. 1, is guilty of removing property while under a levy, but whether Webster is found guilty or not he still will have trouble getting back to Virginia.

On trial for attempting to remove the furniture from his Orrtanna, R. 1, home after his landlord there had levied for failure to pay $100 rent, Webster found the sheriff looking for him again during the recess of the case at 11 o'clock this morning.

The sheriff read another levy to Webster, this time on Webster's car, and while Webster returned to the court room to defend himself in the first case the sheriff was taking his car out to the county jail on the claim of Grayson Showers, Biglerville, R. D., who is seeking $1,500 plus interest from August 30, from Webster. Showers says he lent Webster the money while Webster was engaged in making chicken shipping crates here.

Witnesses Missing
The Virginia apparently was having a bad day all around. He explained in court that he did not have four witnesses here for his defense because he understood his trial would not be "up" for a couple of days because of more important cases scheduled for the current term of court.

Webster testified he left his Orrtanna, R. 1 home September 4 to move to Harrisonburg, leaving the furniture behind. He said he moved without the furniture because he could not immediately obtain the place he wanted at Harrisonburg. And he added that he moved there because the climate here did not agree with his daughter who suffers from rheumatic fever.

He moved Saturday, said Mr. Webster, so the children could begin school at Harrisonburg on Monday. Thursday, September 9, he was able to get his house in Harrisonburg and he, his father, his wife, and other relatives decided to pick up the furniture at the Orrtanna R.D. home he had rented from Joseph Kane, Franklin Twp.

Difference In Time
Kane had testified that he found Webster about midnight removing the furniture from the house and that a levy notice posted on the door of the house had been removed but that the tacks that had held the notice were still in the door. Kane said he also told Webster that the furniture was under levy.

Webster, a chicken crate manufacturer, said he and the members of his family arrived late in the evening to get the furniture because it was the only time he could get the truck and get help and because there was an hour's difference between his time and Kane's.

Had Checkbook Along
Webster said he was operating on standard time and Kane on daylight saving. Securing a truck, he arrived at the house about 9 o'clock, which would have been 10, daylight time. He said he did not notice any sign on the door, but that after Kane (Continued On Page 2)

DEDICATION AT TWO TAVERNS

Two hundred twenty-five attended the 77th anniversary and dedication of the church school held Sunday at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Two Taverns.

Rev. Irvin M. Lau, a former pastor of the church delivered the sermon on "Farmers With God." The dedicatory service itself was conducted as a dialogue between the pastor, Rev. Oscar E. Freeman and the congregation.

Reports at the service showed the new Sunday School building and choir room cost $6,531 and the furnace dedicated at the same time cost $3,015. Total balance to be paid was listed as $2,195.

The souvenir booklet printed for the dedicatory service showed the largest single contribution was made by the Ladies' Aid society which gave $1,000 to the building fund and $300 to the furnace fund. Individual donors gave as high as $100 for each fund. The Sunshine class was second high among donors from the church groups, with a $300 donation to the building fund and $200 to the furnace fund.

Mrs. Anna Sheadle, Town Native, Dies

Mrs. Anna Chritzman Sheadle, aged about 90, a native of Gettysburg, died last Monday at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, Pittsburgh, after a long illness.

She was a daughter of the late William and Sarah (Weikert) Chritzman and was the last of her family. She is the third member of the family to die this year. The Misses Lillie and Louise Chritzman who died suddenly about March 1 were sisters of Mrs. Sheadle.

Her husband, James Woodward Sheadle, a Williamsport, Pa., contractor, died in 1925. Surviving are four children: Paul, Williamsport; Frank, Allentown; May, Philadelphia, and Grace, Pittsburgh.

Interment was made Saturday afternoon at Williamsport.

DEGREES ARE CONFERRED BY PAST GRANDS

The Adams County Past Grands Association sponsored an Independent Order of Odd Fellows Joint Initiation on Saturday in Littlestown. Raymond Miller, Fairfield, is president of the Past Grands and Ernest R. Sentz, Littlestown, is secretary.

Beginning at 1:30 p.m., the initiation, first and second degrees were conferred on a class of candidates in the Littlestown lodge rooms. At 6 p.m., a banquet was served to approximately 55 members and guests in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed Church by the Hustler's Sunday School Class. Dinner music was provided by Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., Littlestown.

Following the banquet, the third and fourth degrees were conferred by the Canton members of York and Gettysburg, in full dress uniform. At the close of the degree work, the doors were opened to the ladies and other guests.

The Rev. George W. Wilt, York, deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge to Pennsylvania, presented the evening's address on the origin of Odd Fellowship in the early 17th century. Paul S. Kliner, York, grand senior warden of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, spoke on the Encampment Branch of the order. John D. Settle, Gettysburg, district deputy grand master of Adams County, presided at the meeting, and Ernest R. Sentz, a past district deputy grand master of the county, assisted. ## Seal Entrance To W. Va. Mine Where Poison Gas, Blasts Trapped 15 Men; Rescue Attempts Fail

By CHARLES STAFFORD
FARMINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Eaten by deadly gas in their attempts to rescue 15 miners, or recover their bodies, mining men last night completed their grim task of walling up entrances of Mine No. 9.

One man was dead. Fifteen were missing and presumed dead. The Jamison Coal Co. pit was rocked by a violent explosion Saturday. A second Saturday night blast flames roaring from the ventilation shaft.

Complete Sealing Job
A third, a sort of pout, shook the tiny mining valley yesterday evening.

The job of sealing No. 9, in an effort to cut off the flow of air and smother a fire burning deep underground, was completed late last night. It will not be reopened until tests show the air inside is safe enough for rescue teams to enter. That might take days or months.

CHEST DRIVE SHORT $3,600 OF '55 GOAL

Almost complete returns from the 1954 Community Chest Drive show that Gettysburg contributed $13,400 to the Chest, or about 80 per cent of the $17,000 goal. Four committees have not yet completed their reports, but they are not expected to be able to make up the difference.

The Community Chest Board is expected to meet in the near future to discuss methods of making up the shortage. One suggested possibility is a direct mail solicitation of all who contributed last year, but who have not been heard from this year.

Fund Chairman John A. MacPhail expressed his disappointment that the quota had not been met. "The enthusiasm was not as great as we had hoped," he stated. "There is no doubt that some of our member organizations will suffer as a result."

MacPhail expressed his appreciation to all solicitors and contributors, and especially to the committee chairmen, "who worked hard for the drive."

Among the larger donations was the $765 total collected at Gettysburg College. The sale of "J. C. McGwine," the pig, by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, netted $127.50 for the Chest.

Donations may be sent to chest headquarters.

STORK SETTING NEW MARK HERE

The current year should set another record for number of births in Gettysburg, according to the report for the first ten months of the year as prepared by Registrar of Vital Statistics Ralph C. Gieselman.

Up to November 1 there were 811 births recorded in the Gettysburg area, which includes Cumberland, Straban, Freedom and Highland Townships as well as the borough. For the first ten months of last year there 786 births listed.

The records also show fewer deaths this year. For the first ten months the number of deaths in the area was 177 as compared to 201 for the comparable period last year. There were 77 births in the area in October, 39 males and 38 females, with all of the births occurring in Gettysburg. The number compares to 75 last October. There were 17 deaths last month, nine males and four females in Gettysburg, two males in Cumberland and two males in Highland. Last October there were 18 deaths.

Visiting Priest To Conduct 40 Hours

The Rev. Father Volk, a missionary priest of the Redemptorist Order has accepted the invitation of the Rev. Philip J. Gergen, pastor of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, New Oxford, to deliver the sermons as part of the annual Forty Hours devotions there beginning the first Sunday of Advent, November 28, and continuing Monday and Tuesday of that week. In addition to Father Volk and the pastor participating in the services will be a Jesuit Father who will have charge of confessions November 27 in preparation for the devotions.

The annual Holy Name Society project of Nocturnal Adoration will be incorporated into Forty Hours this year.

CRASH IN N. O. SQUARE

Two Yorkers suffered minor injuries when their automobile struck a concrete pillar in the square at New Oxford at 1:15 a.m. Saturday. Treated at Hanover Hospital were Robert McKinney, about 45, for face cuts and bruised chest, and John E. Kell, about 47, face cuts.

Also closed today was James Fork Elementary School, only a few hundred yards down the valley from the mine entrance. Officials feared another explosion or escaping gas might endanger the children.

Hope Gone For 15
Rescue crews worked their way almost a mile down the slope and into the passageways of No. 9 late Saturday. Deadly carbon monoxide fumes from the mine fire forced them back.

After three hours of conferences between company, state and federal mine bureau officials, the decision to seal was announced early yesterday.

State Mines Chief Frank B. King, visibly moved, explained, "There is just nothing else we can do." He said the action would remove any slender hope that some of the men might still be alive.

Dean Tilberg Receives Scroll

NEW DE SOTOS MUCH LONGER, LOWER, WIDER

The two De Soto lines for 1955 are new from bumper to bumper—longer lower and wider, with a stylish contemporary new "forward look" which expresses fleetness, power and outstanding performance. These exciting new De Soto models will go on display Wednesday at De Soto-Plymouth dealers throughout the country.

Both lines, the magnificent new Firelite, new leader of the De Soto line, and the well-known Firestone are powered by new hemispherical combustion chamber V-8 engines, redesigned for increased power and performance.

These engines feature greater displacement and larger intake and exhaust valves. The Firelite engine delivers 200 horsepower and is equipped with a new four-barrel carburetor with vacuum automatic control on the opening of the two secondary barrels. This permits economical cruising on two barrels, with automatic opening of the other (Continued on Page 4)

EBENEZER SITES DIES SATURDAY

Ebenezer M. Sites, 84, retired farmer, died Saturday evening at 10:55 o'clock at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thomas, Gettysburg, R. 4. Infirmities caused death.

Mr. Sites had been living at the Thomas home for the last 11 weeks and had been making his home with his other children previously. For the last 10 years he had lived in and around Gettysburg. Mr. Sites was born near Fairfield, a son of the late George F. and Margaret Boyd Sites.

He was a farmer most of his life but had worked for five years for the York Manufacturing Company. His wife, the former Mary Alice Hoffman, died October 15, 1947. Mr. Sites was a member of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church of Gettysburg.

Surviving are eight children: Mrs. Paul H. Spangler, New Oxford, R. 2; Mrs. Thomas, Gettysburg, R. 4; Mrs. Arthur Mundis, Gettysburg, R. 4; Mrs. Wilbert Walsler, Gettysburg, R. 3; George S. Colorado; Mrs. Adam Seeger, Manchester, Pa.; Mrs. William Rhoads, York, and Francis E., Gettysburg, R. 4; 13 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Amanda Hoffman, Fairfield, R. 1; a brother, Stewart Sites, Fairfield, R. 1; and these half brothers and sisters: Charles A. Sites, Pittsburgh; Blaine, Indian Springs, Md.; Mrs. Edna Barr, Wichita, Kans.; Mrs. Alma Hardman, Fairfield, R. 1; Lloyd, Fairfield; Mrs. Mary Hecox, Burlington, Ia.; Mackley Sites, Fairfield, R. 1, and Donald, who resides in Maryland.

BUICK SHOWS ITS 1955 CARS NEXT FRIDAY

Buick today presents a new line of cars, featuring all-new styling and more powerful V-8 engines, plus a revolutionary new variable pitch Dynaflo transmission that greatly increases performance.

The new models will go on display in dealer showrooms Friday. Style-wise the new Buicks feature a new front end with a new wide-screen grille, new rear fenders that give the trunk compartment a longer, lower silhouette, new tail lights patterned after those on the experimental Wildcat II, and exquisite new interior in many color combinations of nylon, leather and cardboard.

Many bright new exterior colors have been developed for 1955 and will be offered in attractive two-tone and three-tone combinations. For the first time Buick is offering a two-tone combination under the sweepers moulding. On two and four-door sedans the customer will have a choice of one color underneath the sweepers, another above and a third color for the top.

Horsepower has been increased to 236 in the Roadmaster, Super and Century Series and 188 in the Special.

Dauphin County's D.A. Speaks Here

The fight against communism begins "right here at home by making sure that we bring about liberty and equality for all." Huetta F. Dowling, Dauphin County district attorney, told the members of the Holy Name Society of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church at their Communion breakfast program held Sunday morning at the parochial school.

The breakfast followed the annual mass for deceased members of the society at which the membership received Holy Communion as a group. Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and moderator of the society, gave the invocation and introduced the speaker.

Attorney Dowling devoted his speech to a discussion of the rights of individuals guaranteed by the American constitution, and noted that all men have a right to freedom of action, "as long as it does not conflict with the freedoms of others. That is what our law is, a definition of where rights must be restrained because they conflict with other rights."

Sixty-five attended the breakfast.

Four Commy Torpedo Boats Sink Nationalist Destroyer

By SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Red China used torpedo boats for the first time in battle yesterday to sink the 1,800-ton Nationalist destroyer escort Taiping.

This development in the long civil war was viewed generally by the Nationalists as a stark warning of stronger Red measures to come.

The Taiping, formerly the USS Decker until transferred to the Nationalists in 1946, was attacked at 1:45 a.m. by four swift torpedo boats, which the Nationalists said were Russian-built.

No Americans were believed to have been aboard.

In Taipei, top nationalist officers conferred for hours on the incident. But there was nothing to confirm an American newspaper report that "momentous decisions" had been made.

The same newspaper said flatly,

100 On Pilgrimage To County Chapel

Approximately 100 members of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church participated in the final Marian Year pilgrimage of the parish Sunday afternoon accompanied by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane. The pilgrimage, sponsored by the NCCW, was made to Conewago Chapel, "the first Catholic church in the world to be dedicated to the Sacred Heart," said Rev. Fr. John P. Bolen, pastor, in an address to the pilgrims during the services.

Services included the recitation of the rosary, the Marian Year prayers and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Rev. Fr. Kane officiated.

SENIOR CLASS TO GIVE PLAY AT FAIRFIELD

"Raggedy Nan," a three-act play, will be given at the Fairfield Joint High School Thursday and Friday evenings by the Senior Class. Curtain time will be 7:45.

The comedy concerns Nancy Edwards, an adorable, impish little ragamuffin who is orphaned when her father is killed in an accident. Phineas Scroggs, the richest and most powerful man in town, holds a mortgage on the Edwards farm and when he forecloses Nancy is forced to enter an orphanage. However, little "Raggedy Nan" finally comes into her own, but not before a series of highly amusing and delightful situations having taken place.

The part of "Raggedy Nan" will be played by Anne Bostwick. Other members of the cast will be "Gramp," Freeman Willis; "Agatha," Willma Bellamy; "Tommy Wyatt," Leo Kint; "Florence," Mary Kuykendall; "Mrs. Finnigan," Margaret Johnson; "Constance Crothers," Rhodney Warren; "Mr. Scroggs," Richard Bigham; "William Scroggs," Samuel Gobel; "Tilly," Eileen McCreary.

Miss Helen M. Cleary, English and language teacher in the Fairfield Joint High School, is directing the play.

Dillsburg Youth Hurt In Accident

A 19-year-old Dillsburg youth was injured at 8:30 a.m. Saturday in an automobile collision a mile and a half north of East Berlin on Route 194.

Robert L. Grove, Dillsburg, R. 2, was treated for cuts of the right knee and hand and a bruised forehead by Dr. J. L. Eshelman of East Berlin.

State police said that Grove was driving south, behind a car operated by J. H. Topper, 49, of East Berlin. Topper began to turn right, police reported, and was partly in the left lane. Grove, behind him, was unable to stop and the two cars collided.

IS SERIOUSLY ILL

EPLEY OPENS PARKING LOT

C. W. Epley, proprietor of Epley's Garage, Chambersburg St., today announced the opening of indoor and outdoor parking facilities. Parking by the hour is available.

"It's simple," Epley said. "My garage is 180 feet by 60, and has space for 70 cars. The only new cars I sell are Studebakers and a I get only eight of them a month. At the moment, I have only one left."

He said that two months ago he bought and tore down the house adjoining his car lot on Chambersburg St. He moved his used cars from the garage onto this lot, which is 182 feet by 100.

"Next spring, I'm going to open up a part of this outdoor lot for parking," Epley stated. "I have only about 60 cars there. But the garage is ready for business now."

Epley's display advertisement today states that two hours free parking will be given with each grease job, car wash or general repair work.

Other players in the varsity lineup will be: William Greco, captain; Robert Gelwicks, Floyd Miller, Michael Joy and Thomas Stoner.

Zurgable Store Is Robbed Friday Night

Thieves broke into the hardware and farm equipment store of Zurgable Brothers, located about a mile south of Emmitsburg at the intersection of U. S. 15 and the Old Frederick Rd. Friday night and took a small amount of cash and tools valued at between $40 and $45.

The entry was discovered about 7:15 a.m. Saturday by Maurice Zurgable, one of the partners in the business. Entry was gained through a side door located toward the rear of the building, and a latch was found pried off.

Maryland State Trooper Donald Tucker was informed of the breaking and entering and began an investigation. A check with the proprietors disclosed that an automobile tire, some bicycle tires and several small tools were missing.

The only money in the building was in the "Coke" machine, and it was apparently taken by the thieves. Drawers of cabinets were pulled open in an apparent search for valuables.

Littlestown UNION SERVICE FOR VETERANS' DAY ON SUNDAY

A large congregation attended the annual union Veterans' Day service held Sunday evening in Centenary Methodist Church. Representatives from the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 231, American Legion and its Ladies' Auxiliary and the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary attended in a body.

The Rev. Russell T. Shilling, pastor of the West Manheim Charge, who is a major in the Chaplains' Corps and a member of the United States Army Reserve attached to the 79th Division Artillery in Harrisburg, was the guest speaker. The Rev. Mr. Shilling, who served for four years in World War II in the Philippine area, presented a message on theme: "Most people take for granted that freedom was won only by blood and sacrifice." The speaker was introduced by the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church.

The worship was in charge of the Rev. Herman E. Stenger, pastor of the host church, who read the Scripture, offered prayer, made the announcements and pronounced the benediction at the close of the service. An anthem was given by the choir of the host church, accompanied by Miss Jane Barton, church organist, who presided at the console throughout the evening.

The service Sunday night was sponsored by the Littlestown Ministerium and the next worship to be arranged by the Ministerium will be on Sunday, November 21, 7:30 p.m., in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of the host church, will present his fifth illustrated lecture in a series of messages concerning the seven weeks trip which he and his enjoyed in the Holy Land last spring. The Rev. Mr. Karns, president of the Ministerium, will be in charge of the worship.

"UNDYING HOPE"

No rift in yonder clouds above . . . despair is all I see . . . and yet I brace myself again . . . with hope in things to be . . . for I have learned in by-gone days . . . to stick and fight things out . . . and in this way somehow someday . . . I'll put heartaches to rout . . . although I make no steady gain . . . my hope says don't retreat . . . I must go on until the end . . . without tasting a defeat . . . no bugles sound to herald me . . . but deep inside I feel . . . a kind of faith that brightly burns . . . and words cannot reveal . . . I do resolve with all my heart . . . to keep my hope from dying . . . and if at last I must go down . . . I'll go with all flags flying.

perintendent of the Third District Sunday School Association was held on Friday evening at the home of the secretary, Miss Dolores Rae Reindollar, Lumber St., Littlestown. Samuel J. Snyder, president, presided. Opening prayer was offered by Harry Baker.

It was decided not to hold the fall rally this year and preliminary plans were made for the annual spring convention, to be held on a date to be announced. The customary teacher exchange among the Sunday Schools of the District will be held in connection with the convention. Plans were made to also have a district teacher exchange on Sunday, December 12. A new banner, awarded annually at the convention for attendance, will be bought and Miss Reindollar will make the purchase. It was agreed that the Sunday School to receive the attendance award may not be the recipient twice in succession. The school possessing the banner may then have the privilege of presenting the banner, at each spring convention, to the winning Sunday School.

The group renewed its pledge to the County Association Fund. David Erb, treasurer, reported. A report was given on the recent State Sunday School Convention held in Harrisburg. These five representa-

Littlestown REV. SEIWEILL CHOSEN PASTOR FOR REDEEMER'S

The Rev. Porter W. Seiweill was elected pastor of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church at a congregational meeting which was held immediately following the Sunday morning worship service. He is presently serving as pastor of Grace Reformed Church in Shipensburg.

Littlestown PLAN ROLL CALL DAY ON NOV. 28

Annual Kingdom Roll Call Day will be held on Sunday, November 28, at Christ Reformed Church. On this day, a team of two men will visit the homes of the congregation and distribute the church envelopes for next year. Anyone wishing to contribute to the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. Hartman fund may do so at that time.

A committee from the Consistory arranged the teams and if anyone appointed is unable to serve, he is asked to notify the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons or the vice president of the Consistory, Orville C. Sentz. The teams will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 23, 7:30 p.m. at the church and it is essential that each team is represented at the meeting.

The Kingdom Roll Call teams follow: Orville C. Sentz and George W. Robert Jr., LeRoy W. Berwager, Bernard L. Warner, Clair R. Markle, Ray A. Sterner, Russell V. Brown, Laverne E. Rebert, Lewis E. Blair, Edward L. Warner, Amos S. Carbaugh, Laverne C. Dutterer, John N. Sell, Noah V. Brown, Clyde L. Sterner, Vernon L. Brown, Mervin K. Myers, Fred A. Warner, Lester L. Hilker, John S. Reindollar, Alvin C. Gerriek, Clair E. Arentz, Gerald W. Sterner, Cleason L. Messinger, Melvin L. Spangler, Elmer L. Dutterer, Ralph L. Snyder, David E. Gresson, John M. Wisler, Dennis E. Hoff, Stanley R. Sell, Charles A. Grove, Roy A. Sterner, Paul T. Myers, Robert S. Bankert, Earl L. Baker, Harold E. Shoemaker, Charles C. Carbaugh, Bernard W. Dutterer, Richard D. Sheely, Ralph I. Unger, Raymond A. Bittle, W. Raymond Warner, Ralph C. Unger, Laverne G. Mummert, Lynville G. Seabrook, Paul J. Mummert, Wilmer F. Kessler, Joseph T. Bollinger, Earl A. Rebert, Edgar W. Berwager, George M. Koonz, Irvin C. Markle, Clair E. Rebert, Harvey C. Wildasin, Walter E. Hilker, John H. Weikert and Glenn W. Sterner.

Quarterly Collection
The quarterly collection of the repair fund envelopes took place during the worship service on Sunday morning. A message was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Koons and the choir sang the anthem "I Have Found My Lord." Lois Myers Elmig, accompanied by Fred A. Warner, church organist. The altar flowers and bulletins were presented by Mrs. Carrie R. Wine and family in memory of husband and father, Horace Z. Wine. Lester L. Hilker, George D. Koons, Mervin K. Myers and Donald L. Berwager served as ushers for the service.

The board of trustees announced through its secretary-treasurer, Roy A. Sterner, that the cemetery fund had received a $50 contribution from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wintrobe. The treasurer of the building fund, Stanley R. Sell, reported that the October offering for this fund amounted to $234.06. The Rev. Mr. Koons announced that Mrs. Ray L. Hahn, the former Beverly A. Spellman, had been received into the church membership by letter of transfer from Trinity Reformed Church, Hanover. Announcement was made that the annual Thank Offering service in charge of the Women's Guild will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

The Christ Churchh Choir will rehearse on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Taiho, picked up most of the crew, including the captain. Search continued for five officers and 26 naval ratings.

One of the rescued died, and many others were wounded, the Nationalists said.

Nationalist reaction was strong. The official Central Daily News described the attack as a "prelude to an offensive against Formosa."

The Hsin Sheng Pao, which speaks for the provincial government of Formosa, urged Nationalists to start a "defensive offensive" against the Reds.

There was considerable thought here that the U.S. 7th Fleet, guarding Formosa against any invasion move by the Communists, has been on patrol near the Tachens. One question being asked is: What if the Taipings had been flying the American flag?

Hints At Invasion
The Nationalist view of the incident, which is Red China's first such naval victory, was summed up by Shen Chang-huan, acting foreign minister.

He said the sinking served as a warning to those who persist in believing the Chinese Reds want peace and do not intend to invade Formosa. Most non-Chinese quarters in Taipei, however, still doubt the Reds would presently violate the defense zone which the 7th Fleet is committed to defend.

That zone embraces Formosa, the Pescadores and other satellite islands of Formosa, but not the Tachens or other coastal islands.

As a result of the Taipings incident, Nationalists may press the United States for:

1. Inclusion of National-held outposts islands just off the Red China coast in the 7th's defense zone.
2. Speedy conclusion of a mutual defense pact.

3. Increased military aid to meet any Red threat to the offshore islands and Formosa itself.

It also is possible the Nationalists will seek an understanding with Washington to enable them to bomb Communist air and naval bases.

The Taipings episode has created a more explosive situation than has existed at any time since the Nationalists were driven off the mainland in 1949.

Peiping radio claimed the Taipings was sunk while on a "nihilance raid."

Peiping also said Reds in the past two months had damaged three other destroyers and a gunboat, shot down 21 Nationalist planes and damaged 67.

Naguib, Egyptian President, Ousted, Placed Under Arrest

By WILTON WYNN

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Maj. Gen. Mohamed Naguib was in the political ashcan today after his ouster as Egypt's president by the ruling military junta. Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser, taking over as acting president yesterday, held undisputed power.

Naguib, popular hero of the 1952 revolution against ex-King Farouk, was charged with being implicated in a recent unsuccessful plot by the fanatic Moslem Brotherhood to assassinate Nasser.

A long rivalry between the two soldier-politicians had flared into an open struggle for power last spring. Nasser emerged then as the nation's strong-man ruler. Naguib became a figurehead president.

He was uneaten yesterday and placed under arrest in a government house outside Cairo without any major outbreak of violence. The capital remained still calm today, but the atmosphere was tense.

Two civilians were killed and two policemen seriously wounded in a clash early yesterday, before Naguib's ouster, in suburban Helwan. A government spokesman said the fighting occurred when police closed in on Youssef Talaat, fugitive leader of the Moslem Brotherhood's secret order, and his guards tried to clear the way for his escape, using machine guns and hand grenades.

The government said Talaat, taken into custody, confessed that Naguib had approved a brotherhood plot to kill Nasser and take over the government.

Call Emergency Meeting
Events moved swiftly after Talaat's confession. The 10 army officers who make up the Revolutionary Council met in an emergency session and assigned army chief Gen. Hakim Amer and Wing Cmdr. Hassan Ibrahim to notify Naguib of his ouster. At the same time the army threw a heavy guard around his official residence Abdin Palace.

Amer and Hassan escorted Naguib to a home in Merg, eight miles from the capital.

A special Cabinet meeting approved the council's action.

Gains In Prestige
Egyptians reacted to the government's drastic moves with no outward show of emotion yesterday. Nasser's position as a public idol has mushroomed since an assassin tried to shoot him down while he was speaking Oct. 26 in Alexandria. Eight shots missed.

Accusing the Moslem Brotherhood of instigating the plot, the government has arrested 700 members.

Last week one of the prisoners testified that Naguib had promised to make a broadcast to "calm the population" if Nasser were killed. No action was taken against the President on the basis of the testimony, but he was considered under suspension.

Engineered Coup
Nasser generally is credited with masterminding the bloodless coup against Farouk two years ago. When the new government took over, however, he remained in the background as Naguib's deputy.

Under pressure, Naguib quit as president and premier last February, but the Revolutionary Council was forced to restore him as president because of his popularity with the masses. Nasser got the premiership.

Trouble erupted between the two again in March, when Naguib took back the premiership and chairmanship of the council. On April 15 Naguib once more stepped down, becoming a figurehead chief of state. His position grew progressively weaker after that and his popular following also gradually shifted to Nasser.

For Mamie Sunday

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A few relatives and close friends joined President Eisenhower last night in a salute to his wife Mamie on her 58th birthday.

Among the First Lady's relatives attending a White House birthday supper were her mother Mrs. John S. Doud and her sister Mrs. George Moore.

Mrs. Doud is staying at the White House. Mrs. Moore's husband is an Army colonel, stationed in Washington.

In the morning, President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended services at National Presbyterian Church and the First Lady's pastor wished her "many more days of good health and helpful service."

Proceedings of the Educational Convention: Pursuant to the call of the County Superintendent a Convention of the Teachers of Adams county and the friends of education met in the Lecture Room of St. James Church, in the Borough of Gettysburg, on Saturday, November 12, at 10 o'clock A.M.

David Wells, Esq., County Superintendent, called the Convention to order, and after prayer by Rev. Jacob Zeigler, briefly stated the object of the convention. The following is a list of the Teachers present—W. B. Thomas, F. A. McDermid, Jacob Lott, Solomon Orner, Theo. R. Ditterline, W. H. Heller, John A. Wierman, Henry H. Orner, Levi Christner, Robert A. Little, J. A. McBride, F. W. Orner, J. J. Bieseker, C. H. Austin, T. F. Gammay, Martin Mickle, C. W. Welty, Levi Minter, J. Carbaugh, D. K. Snyder, R. S. Paxton, John A. Young, Aaron Sheely, Levi W. Lott, James Little, John McKnight, Rebecca Wright, Maria C. Thompson, Cynthia Powers, Ann McCurdy, H. E. McCreary, Mary D. McClellan, Caroline S. Sheads, Ann Powers, Mary Miller, Mary Powers, S. J. McMillan, David Currens, Geo. Hagerman, Peter Yeatts, Isaac Group, Joseph Kittinger, John M. Wolf, Daniel Delap, H. D. Schriver, B. D. Snyder, James W. Irwin, J. B. Jones, John White, Abraham Horst.

S. Durboraw, Esq., was unanimously elected President of the Convention and George Hagerman and David Currens, Secretaries.

Appointed to draft a Constitution for a Teachers' Association: C. H. Austin, Dr. J. A. Swope, Rebecca Wright, Maria C. Thompson and T. R. D. Ditterline.

Hon. T. H. Burrows, of Lancaster, addressed the Convention in the afternoon.

Married: At the M. E. Parsonage, on the 14th inst., by Rev. John H. C. Dosh, Mr. Isaac M. Diehl, of Mountjoy township, to Miss Elizabeth C. Lott, of Mountpleasant township.

On the 12th inst., by Rev. E. Kohr, Mr. Noah Shenbrook, of this place, to Miss Catharine Fleiney, of Mountjoy, Lancaster county.

Female Seminary: This Institution re-opened Monday, under the charge of Miss M. Wallace, who was formerly the efficient and popular Principal of the Seminary.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The entertainment in Agricultural Hall on Thursday for the benefit of the Ladies' Gospel Temperance Society, was quite a success. The receipts netted about $31.25 after paying all expenses.

If anybody could devise an effective plan to break up the nuisance of stamping, whistling, &c., and the still greater nuisance of whispering and talking during entertainments in the Hall, a great service would be rendered. There seems to be a class of ill-mannered persons who go to these entertainments . . . annoying well-bred people and marring the pleasure of the best entertainment. This type of nuisance was specially marked on Thursday night.

Personal: Mr. Robert S. Crawford, formerly of this place, but now connected with the Engineer department of the Anchor line, one of the largest steamships of the Anchor line, between New York and Glasgow, Scotland, is paying a flying visit to his home. Mr. Crawford looks well and sea-faring life evidently agrees with him.

Mr. William H. Crawford, of Chicago, Ill., is also spending a few days at his home.

Married: Bieseker-Bucher—AUG. 14, in Middletown, by Rev. J. H. Snike, David R. Bieseker to Miss Sadie C. Bucher, both of this county.

Price-Wolf—Nov. 9, at Littlestown, by Rev. E. J. Metzler, J. V. Price, of Hanover, to Miss Emma J. Wolf, of Germany township.

Bible Society: On Sunday night

Today's Talk

GREENFIELD VILLAGE

The late Henry Ford had a most interesting hobby. It was the collecting and preserving of much that has gone into the making of America. In Greenfield Village at Dearborn, Michigan, the tradition of America is kept alive. Here may be seen examples of nearly everything that went into the life of early America — and here also are the homes of many of the great, restored to their original state.

The Mammoth Ford Museum is so remarkable it would take a volume even to give a check list of all that it contains. Horse drawn carriages roll through the village past homes of noted Americans, some of them birthplaces. One of the buildings, Edison's original laboratory, is restored so perfectly that Edison upon visiting it remarked: "Henry has even imported the red clay."

The first car Mr. Ford built in a small shed is here, early blacksmith shops, the workshops of the Wright brothers, the Lincoln Court House, homes of Luther Burbank, Noah Webster, Edison, and others. And in the Museum are the arranged examples of a grocery store, harness shop, barber shop, jewelry store, and many another that takes one back a hundred years ago, preserving its atmosphere.

I recently was told that Greenfield Village attracts more visitors during the season than many of the most noted tourist places of the country. Last year 813,000 persons visited Greenfield Village and its Henry Ford Museum, only one in ten being a Detroit resident. 623,269 people visited the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, D. C., and 283,424 people visited Colonial Williamsburg, where more than $3,000,000 was spent in its restoration. Mr. Ford once told me he had spent a like amount on Greenfield Village.

All in all, this Greenfield Village is one of the most interesting, useful, and representative realistic examples of what early America was that can be seen anywhere. To visit it is an unforgettable experience.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Faith Triumphant"

FAMILY WEATHER MAN

Our family weather prophet used his rheumatism to predict. The weather due he said he knew from certain ills that men afflict.

He had no need for maps or charts or telegrams and telephones. He's saidly say: "Twill rain today. I know it like my aching bones."

He scorned the city's weather man. He thought he had a surer way. "No rain will fall," he'd tell us all, "I'm feeling pretty well today."

Grandpa was very often right. But still uncertain I remain. When you are old, is rain foretold By rheumatism's twinge of pain?

Rev. Mr. Jamison, of the Associate Reformed church, delivered the annual address before the Ladies' Bible Society of Gettysburg, in the Methodist church, all the other churches being closed, and the pastors assisting at the services. The annual report of the Treasurer was held. This society and that of the College and Seminary are auxiliaries of the Pennsylvania Bible Society, and are among the oldest in the state, having kept up their organization continuously.

On Tuesday night the annual business meeting was held in the lecture room of the Methodist church. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. S. B. Smith; Vice President, Mrs. J. Winebrenner; Secretary, Mrs. M. Jacobs; Librarian, Miss M. P. McClean; Treasurer, Miss M. P. McClean; Executive and Collecting Committee, Mrs. J. J. Jamison, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. M. S. Scott, Mrs. G. W. Spangler, Mrs. Prof. Breidenbaugh, Miss Annie R. Danner, Mrs. H. Harper and Miss M. P. McClean were appointed a committee to tender the thanks of the society to Rev. Mr. Jamison for his able address.

TRANSPOLAR PLANE SERVICE BETWEEN L.A., COPENHAGEN

By HUBBARD KEAVY

LOS ANGELES, (P)—The airliner Royal Viking took off early today to inaugurate the first commercial transpolar passenger service between Los Angeles and Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Scandinavian Airlines System's DC6B rose from fogbound International Airport at 12:05 a.m. with film actors Jean Hersholt and Walter Pidgeon, public officials and two dozen newsmen, including this writer, aboard.

Ship Christened

Shortly before the takeoff, actress Cyd Charisse christened the Royal Viking with the traditional champagne bottle. A reception and dinner honored the passengers earlier in the evening.

At 8:10 p.m. today, a similar plane — and likewise loaded with newsmen and dignitaries — will leave Copenhagen headed West. The eastbound plane's flying time, for the 5,800-mile "short course," is 22 hours. But the westbound craft, due to prevailing westerly winds, will be in the air about 25 hours. There is, incidentally, a nine-hour time differential between Denmark and the Pacific Coast.

Six exploratory flights by SAS established the practicability of the flight, which stops only at Winnipeg, Manitoba, in Canada and Blue West 8, an airfield on Greenland. What military significance this transpolar route has no one has yet said, but undoubtedly it has some.

First Direct Link

Scandinavian Airlines, a consortium since 1946 of Swedish, Norwegian and Danish airlines, will establish southern California's first direct link with Europe. The arctic route, only about 30 per cent of it over water, is 600 miles shorter than the usual flying path via New York. And plane changes in New York, SAS estimates, require a minimum of seven hours.

Each DC6B used on the trip, which will be twice weekly each way, will carry 32 passengers and crews of 10. There are eight berths on each with a sleeping charge of $5 each way. The round trip fare is $1,034.50. Each plane also will carry up to 2,000 pounds of cargo.

five openings with the approval of John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers' chief.

Lewis, who spent two hours at the scene yesterday, said the sealing appeared to be the only course. He commended officials directing the operation.

As the miners labored to close the entrances, gas pressure began building up in the wrecked elevator portal and the destroyed ventilation shaft. Another explosion was threatened by the highly combustible methane gas.

No one could say what caused the explosion.

Two Escaped

Vice President James Hyslop of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., which recently acquired the corporate stock of Jamison, surmised that the blast resulted from ignition of methane gas.

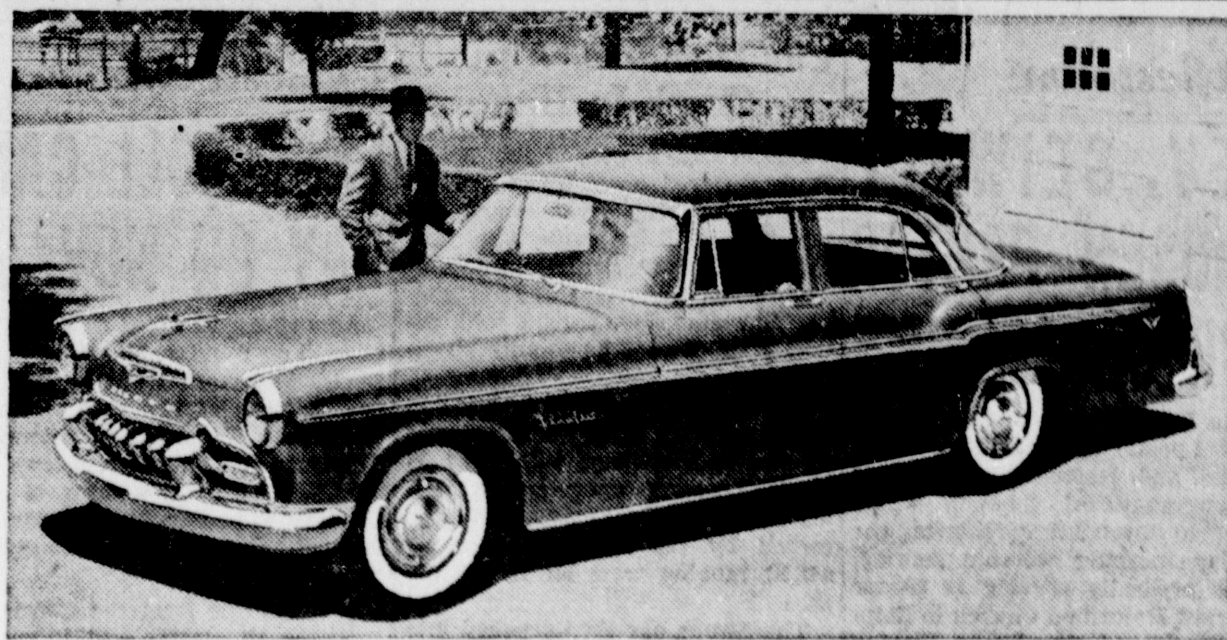

But only 30 minutes before it was touched off, he said, an atmosphere test in the mine showed the air was clear. "Something suddenly happened to release a considerable portion of methane," he said.

One man, working at the entrance of the mine, was killed. Two, a short distance inside the main portal, heard the rumble and felt a rush of air. They reached the surface in a state of near-collapse but unhurt. The whereabouts of the others were not known.

STEALS PLANE FOR QUICK TRIP IN MICHIGAN

GLADSTONE, Mich. (P)—An 18-year-old Gladstone boy who had "foiled around planes some" yesterday flew a sleek stolen plane from Grand Rapids to Gladstone, giving General Air Force jets the bird en route.

After landing the single-engine, $26,000 Beechcraft Bonanza at a small airstrip near this Upper Peninsula town, Darryl Spaulding calmly said:

"I just wanted to get to Gladstone in a hurry."

The plane was owned by Lear Inc., a Grand Rapids aircraft instrument company. A Lear mechanic at Kent County Airport said he heard the plane's engine start but figured Edward F. Conklin, chief pilot for Lear, was in it until it veered erratically while taxiing for takeoff.

Air Force jets intercepted the light plane but Spaulding, with his lower air speed, was able to outmaneuver them, the Air Force said. The jets were forced to turn back because of low fuel supplies.

The plane finally was spotted by Fred Sensiea, a private pilot, on a small landing strip near Gladstone, 300 miles from Grand Rapids.

Spaulding was arrested at his grandmother's house near Gladstone.

TWO FIRMS PAY $11 MILLIONS

NEWARK, N. J. (P)—Two big Newark fire insurance companies will foot bills totaling more than 11 million dollars on property damage claims resulting from Hurricane Carol, Edna and Hazel.

That was the estimate made Saturday by the American Insurance Co. and the Loyalty Group firm as claims continued to come in from property owners along the Eastern Seaboard.

An official of the American firm said his company would put out more than 5 1/2 million dollars. From a Loyalty Group spokesman came word that his firm does not yet have a total figure, but that it probably would exceed 5 1/2 million dollars.

The spokesman for American said most of the expected 35,500 claims have been received. Of these, he said, 22,500 result from Hurricane Hazel alone.

Young Defendant Guilty Of Murder

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (P)—Alfred Nardi, 22, of near Harrisburg, has been found guilty of first degree murder in the slaying of a guard during an escape attempt at the Pennsylvania Institute for Mental Defectives.

A Huntingdon County jury of 11 men and 1 woman reached its decision Saturday after 2 hours of deliberation. The trial lasted through the week.

The jury recommended life imprisonment for Nardi, a prisoner at the institution when Charles R. Elder, 61, a guard, was knifed to death Aug. 9.

Judge Swirles L. Hines did not say when he would pronounce sentence.

and his wife took his sister to visit the Clark Valley dam and that she wandered away. Volunteers joined police in searching for the woman.

East Berlin

EAST BERLIN — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Bubb, R. 2, report their daughter, Mrs. Raymond M. Lillich, Abbotstown, who is a patient at Hanover Hospital after two major operations, is progressing satisfactorily.

A group of classmates of East Berlin's Junior High School have sent a bouquet to Joanne March, who has been a hospital patient in York for surgery due to a serious fracture of her collarbone sustained when she fell through a hay chute at her family's barn where she was entertaining her class at a Halloween party two weeks ago.

The Peoples State Bank is having a night depository box installed on the outer wall of the building and expects to have the convenience in use by the end of next week.

Jacque L. Hoffman, 19, has recovered from the minor leg injury he sustained when the truck he was driving near Red Lion two weeks ago for the Penn Wood Heel Co. overturned.

The Rev. Louis S. Dougherty, pastor of Paradise Catholic parish, who holds an important position in the Prison Chaplains' Association, received a citation at the prison chaplains' convention at Philadelphia two weeks ago.

Charles E. Smith, York, has been seriously ill at his home, according to work received by his daughter, Mrs. Paul Lerew Jr.

The Fellowship Guild of Bermudian Church of the Brethren will meet at the Warren Jacobs home, near Bigmount, at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Mrs. John Z. Barton, R. 3, is spending several days in Philadelphia to visit her daughter, Miss Sylvia Barton, a staff nurse at University of Pennsylvania Hospital. The Bartons' son, Frank, York R. 8, is much improved after his discharge from York Hospital where he was an appendectomy patient.

Ralph W. Hamme, Hanover, a former East Berlin resident, was a visitor here during the week.

Mrs. Augustine J. Tierney had as a visitor during the week her cousin, Mrs. Bertha Kuhn Sappington, who has now left for her home in Tampa, Fla. Mrs. Sappington's sister and brother, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Smith and L. Guy Kuhn, Hanover, accompanied her here.

El J. Gross, 82, who has been totally blind for the past four years, was honored Nov. 7 at the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Holzschwamm Union Church of which he is the oldest Reformed member.

Calvin Lerew, a member of Lerew's, Inc., spent a day this week at a convention of automotive dealers in the Poconos. His brother, Paul Jr., a fellow member, was in Philadelphia this week as a representative to an auto dealers' conclave.

William H. Lerew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lerew, will be married this month to Miss Phyllis Arlene Mummert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mummert, near Franklintown, an organist at a Franklintown Church. Both are graduates of East Berlin High School. Their new home is rapidly being completed on Water Street.

ACTION Is Formed With Pat From Ike

WASHINGTON (P)—A nationwide organization called ACTION — American Council to Improve Our Neighborhoods — came into existence today with an approving gesture from President Eisenhower.

The President scheduled an address at the kickoff luncheon of the Board of Directors of the new non-profit, privately supported group aimed at the eradication and prevention of slums.

The movement is headed by retired Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, former superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, and a 53-member board made up of leaders in civic affairs, business, labor and the church.

SUSAN HAYES SOON TO TAKE STAND AT TRIAL

CLEVELAND (P)—The self-imposed seclusion of alluring Susan Hayes neared an end today as she awaited her turn to testify in the murder trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, the osteopath the state says was once her lover.

The trial was entering its fifth week, and the state hoped to finish its side of the case in the sixth week. While that hope may be premature, Miss Hayes' appearance as the state's star witness is not far off. A prosecution source has said it is unlikely she would be the last state witness.

Dr. Sheppard is accused of beating his pregnant wife Marilyn to death last July 4 after a quarrel over his affairs with Miss Hayes and other women. He insists his wife was killed by a prowler who knocked him out when he tried to help her.

Admits Intimacies.
Miss Hayes, an auburn-haired beauty with a cute spray of freckles across her nose, popped into the public eye last summer when police named her as a paramour of Dr. Sheppard and brought her here from Los Angeles to testify.

Since then, she has avoided reporters as much as possible staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayes, in suburban Rocky River.

She once was a laboratory technician in Bay View Hospital, an osteopathic institution in Bay Village, where Dr. Sheppard practiced.

The state says Miss Hayes has admitted she was intimate with Dr. Sheppard "more than once" while he was in Los Angeles last March, attending an osteopathic school.

Because U.S. farms are growing larger, their number is decreasing — from 6,800,000 in 1935 to 5,400,000 in 1950.

Bullets Outclass Terrors 27-0 For Fourth Triumph; Bob Eppelman Gets 3 TDS

Sparked by Bob Eppelman, fullback, who scored three touchdowns, the Gettysburg College gridders tallied in every period to easily defeat Western Maryland 27-0 here Saturday afternoon before approximately 2,500 fans.

Eppelman, who today was honored at the Maxwell Club luncheon in Philadelphia for his performance against Delaware, intercepted a pass and ran 27 yards for his first score in the opening period. In the second period he went over from the one and streaked over from the 10 for his third quarter score.

After Eppelman returned the opening kickoff to his own 37, the Bullets drove for three straight first downs to the Terror 21. A pair of penalties and a long loss put the Bullets back on the 46 with the Terrors eventually taking over on their 11 after a punt by Bert Avis.

A pair of punt exchanges, followed and Western Maryland took over on its 11. The visitors gained a first down on the 22. Two plays later Bill Holbruner fired a pass intended for Charlie White but Eppelman speared the ball on the 27 and raced back over for a score after 12-37 minutes of the period. Jim Soltz boot the extra point.

The second Bullet tally came late in the second frame and climaxed a 40-yard drive. Lave Lichtenfeld took a quick-kick by Dick Hersh and returned the ball from the Gettysburg 39 to the Western Maryland 40. Jim Megee, Eppelman and Lichtenfeld toted the ball for a trio of first downs to reach the 1 from where Eppelman bolted over. Again Soltz converted.

Beck Blocks Punt
Carl Beck, Bullet guard, broke through to block Hersh's punt early in the third quarter to set the stage for other TD. Hart Beaver, tackle, pounced on the ball on the Terror 18. On the first play Megee took a pitchout and circled end for eight yards. Eppelman then broke through tackle to go the rest of the yard. Beck added the point on a placement.

Gettysburg went 54 yards for its final score in the last period after Megee returned a punt to his own 46. The drive was featured by a 30-yard run by Megee which put the ball on the 18. Mike Duke finally went over from the 2. The kick for the point failed when a poor pass from center hurried Soltz.

The Bullets' forward wall proved particularly efficient against the outclassed but scrappy Terrors. Western Maryland was held to 44 yards as net gain in rushing.

DETROIT LIONS SAFE ON WAY TO TITLE PLAYOFF

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

The Detroit Lions, leading the Western Conference by two games, are safely on the way to their third straight National Football League playoff and a chance to win their third successive league title.

But the road is far from rosy for the New York Giants, who are atop the Eastern Conference today but only by the thin margin of half a game.

The Lions avenged their only defeat of the season yesterday when they whipped the San Francisco 49ers 48-7 for their sixth victory. They have five games remaining—two with the Green Bay Packers and one each against the Philadelphia Eagles, Chicago Bears and the Cleveland Browns. And only the Browns, pressing the Giants for the Eastern Conference lead, figure to cause the champions any serious trouble.

Giants Meet Rams
Meantime, the Giants, who took sole possession of their division yesterday by downing the Eagles 27-14, must face the always dangerous Los Angeles Rams Sunday and then take on the Browns in the game that could well decide the title. They also play Pittsburgh and Philadelphia again.

The Browns, who hold a 5-2 record compared to New York's 6-2 after walloping the Bears 39-10 yesterday, tangle with the Eagles Sunday, followed by the Giants whom they defeated earlier in the season. Washington, Pittsburgh and Detroit.

The 49ers' defeat yesterday coupled with Los Angeles' 28-17 conquest of the Chicago Cardinals tied the Rams with San Francisco for second place back of the Lions. Pittsburgh's title hopes faded still more with a 17-14 defeat by Washington. On Saturday night, Green Bay defeated Baltimore 24-13.

Plain Pigskin

(This is the third of six articles on teen-age football.)

By FRANK ECK

A good ball handler keeps his eye on the football when possible. He avoids tenseness by keeping his fingers relaxed. He permits his hands to "give" when he makes a catch.

The ball carrier should run with one point of the ball tucked into the armpit and the other point held by well-spread fingers. It is best to carry the ball on the side farthest from the opposition. For instance, most good backs carry the ball in their left armpit when running to the left. It's just the opposite when running to the right.

In the T formation the quarterback crouches directly behind the center. The quarterback feels the ball before he sees it. He and his teammates know the signal for the snapping back of the ball but the quarterback does not see the ball unless he grips it for a pass or hands it off to another back.

In taking the pass from center the quarterback has his left hand beneath the center with the palm up. The back of his right hand touches the center's buttocks and the palm is down. The two thumbs should touch with the base of the thumbs separated by about two inches. The hands are spread and the fingers slightly curled to form a pocket.

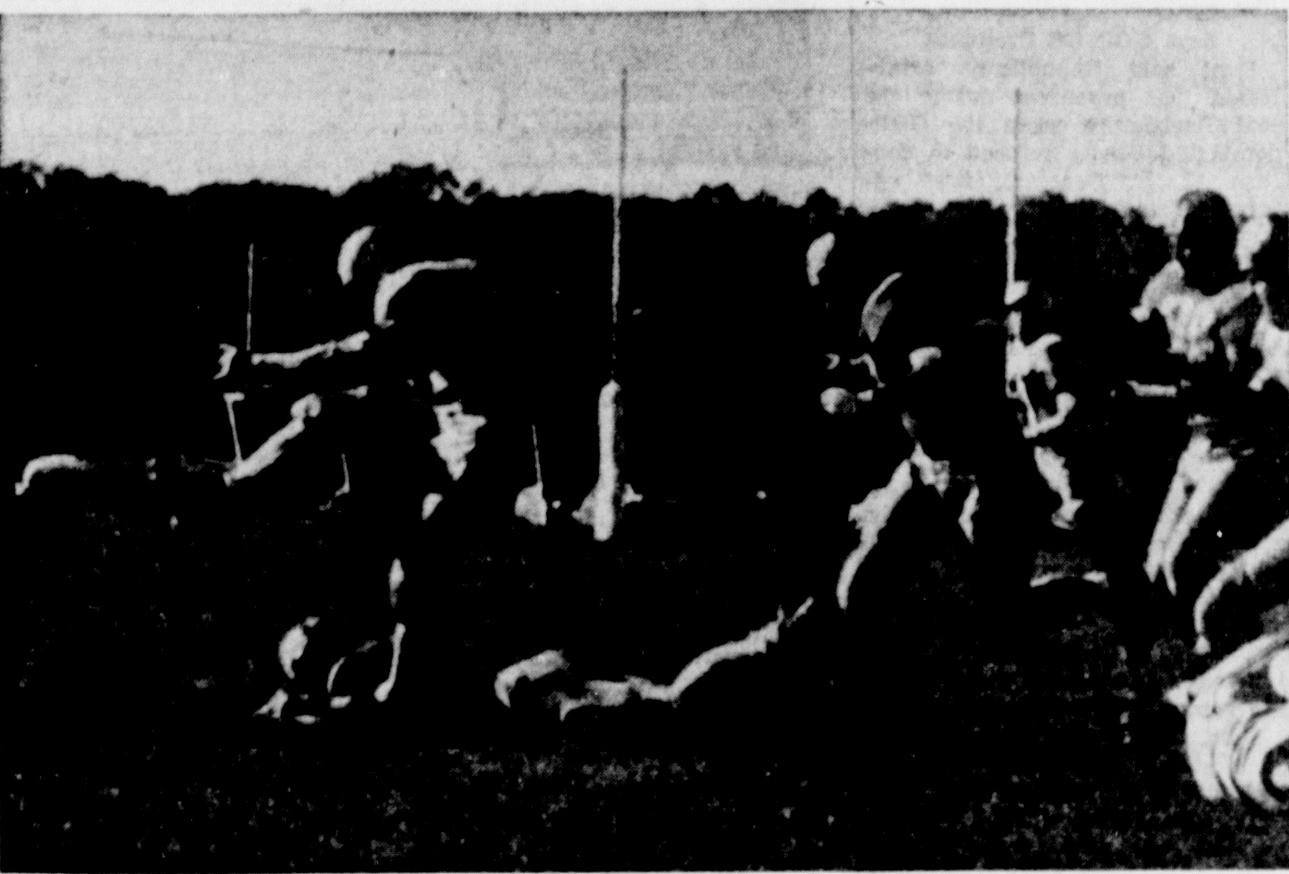

When the center snaps the ball back the hands form a vice around the ball.
At Notre Dame, former Coach Frank Leahy used to tell his centers they would get a new suit of clothes if they drew blood from the quarterback's hand when the ball was snapped back. It was his way of getting the ball snapped back fast.

Feed, Fake, Flee

One of Leahy's pet expressions for quarterbacks was "feed, fake and flee." After feeding the ball to one halfback, he always liked to see the field general fake to

Lichtenfeld, Bullet Back, Adds Yardage

Dave Lichtenfeld, Gettysburg halfback, is seen picking up two yards around end on the second play from scrimmage during the Bullet-Western Maryland game here Saturday afternoon which was won by the Bullets 27-0. Lichtenfeld appears to be making a kick but instead has the ball tucked under his right arm. Chasing the Bullet back are Phil Suwall, Terror fullback, and Bob Butler, guard.

COLLEGE GRID SEASON DRAWS NEARER FINISH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The football season moves toward its last minute rush of traditional games with more than half of Pennsylvania's collegiate football eleven already tucking away the football togs.

And on the Carnegie Tech campus in Pittsburgh there's a tinge of sadness as the Engineers' hopes of the college's first perfect season get tucked away with the cleated shoes and footballs.

The Engineers came acropper Saturday against another group of Engineers—Lehigh. The two eleven played to a 13-13 tie, leaving Carnegie Tech with a season's mark of 6-0-1.

Junata and Pennsylvania Military College, however, kept their all-winning records intact. Junata trounced Swarthmore 39-0 and PMC downed winless Lebanon Valley 33-14.

Junata will go after its eighth win of the season—and 19th over a two-year span (4-2-1). PMC meets Albright (3-5-1).

The big game for the coming weekend brings together the state's two titans—Penn State and Pitt—in the Steel City. The Nittany Lions defeated Rutgers last week-end 37-14 for their sixth win in eight starts. Pittsburgh (4-4) scored an impressive win over Nebraska's Cornhuskers 21-7.

Other Results
Bucknell, in a warmup for its important encounter with Delaware this Saturday, shutout Albright 27-0 last weekend with its regulars confined to the sidelines. The Blue Hens trampled Lafayette 41-7.

In other games: Army toyed with Penn and won easily 35-0. Temple defeated Scranton 20-0. Villanova lost its eighth game of the season—27-0 to Mississippi Southern. Ursinus defeated Brooklyn 19-0. Haverford humbled Susquehanna 66-0. Gettysburg downed Western Maryland 27-0. Muhlenberg thumped Franklin and Marshall 33-6.

Lock Haven defeated Lycoming 20-6. Kings Point edged Kings 13-12. Moravian trounced Wager 34-0. Wilkes defeated Bridgeport, Conn., 46-6. New Britain Teachers beat National Aggies 26-6. Waynesburg lost to Virginia Tech 20-6. Drexel defeated Coast Guard 26-6. Clarion edged Brockport, N.Y., Teachers 30-28. Geneva routed Allegheny 38-0. East Stroudsburg thumped Cheyney 43-0. Lincoln rolled over Shaw 36-6. Dickinson squeaked past Johns Hopkins 13-6. Grove City lost to Bethany 27-0. Mansfield trounced Millersville 42-7. Kutztown outscored Montclair, N.J., 20-13 and Shippensburg trounced Bridgewater, Va., Teachers 34-14.

the other halfback. That accomplished, he would like to see the quarterback run back and fake a forward pass.

The stiff-arm or straight-arm is best applied by planting the heel of the hand on the would-be tackler's headgear or shoulder. The arm should be held low and close to the body until the ball carrier is about to apply the stiff-arm. Stay with your interference if you have any.

When trying to recover a fumble, many coaches advise against falling directly on the ball. It's too likely to squirt away. Instead, land on the ground close to the ball and slide onto the ball so that it can be clutched with both hands.

Long Bear Season Opens This Morning

HARRISBURG (AP)—The 1954 bear hunting season in Pennsylvania opened at 7 a. m. today for a 12-day run—double the length of the season the last eight years.

The state Game Commission extended the season because of the small number of kills reported in the last two years—303 last fall and 261 the previous year.

Only bears over one year old are legal game. Shooting hours are 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily except Sunday. The final day is Nov. 27.

The 1954 bear season is the state's longest since the 21-day hunt in 1932. The limit is one per hunter and two a day or season for hunting parties of three or more.

CANDIDATES FOR MAJOR BOWLS NARROW DOWN

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

The list of candidates for the four games was down to manageable proportions today but there still was only one team with its spot definitely nailed down.

No matter what happens in its final two games against UCLA and Notre Dame, Southern California will be the host in the Rose Bowl. If they stop UCLA, the No. 1 team in the country Saturday, they'll win the Pacific Coast Conference title. If they lose, UCLA will take the crown, but the Trojans, as runners-up, get the bid anyhow. UCLA played in the bowl last Jan. 1 and is therefore ineligible this year.

Decisive Game Coming

Otherwise, everything is up in the air.
Here's how they shape up: Rose Bowl — Southern California's Big Ten opponent will be determined Saturday when Ohio State and Michigan meet. If the undefeated Buckeyes, second in the weekly Associated Press poll, win, they will get the bid.

However, if Michigan wins, both teams would have 6-1 league records. A vote would have to be taken. In that case, the Wolverines probably would be selected on the basis of having beaten Ohio State.

Cotton Bowl Undecided

Cotton Bowl — The Southwest Conference winner, which usually is decided on the last day of the season, is the host team. Until last Saturday, Arkansas seemed to have it all sewed up. Southern Methodist beat the Razorbacks 21-14 and changed that.

Now if SMU whips Baylor and Texas Christian, its last two foes, it is in. One loss and Arkansas, which has completed its league season, plays in the bowl.

The visiting team probably will be the club that finishes second in the Southeastern Conference race.

Mississippi In Front

Sugar Bowl — The Southeastern Conference champion makes the trip to New Orleans. Right now Mississippi is in front with a 4-1 record and the chances are the Rebels will go on and take it, barring an upset. They have to get by Mississippi State two weeks hence.

Should State win, the survivor of the Georgia-Georgia Tech game would emerge the champion.

Even if Mississippi loses to State, the Rebels would be the leading candidate for the Cotton Bowl.

However, Arkansas defeated Mississippi 6-0 and a replay might not be too attractive.

The second team in the Sugar Bowl probably will be Arkansas or SMU, whichever fails to make the Cotton Bowl. West Virginia of the Southern Conference was the visiting team last year, but the 42-19 pasting the Mountaineers took from Georgia Tech reportedly has soured bowl officials.

Maryland Makes Try

Orange Bowl — The host in this one is the Atlantic Coast Conference champion. Maryland, last year's national champion, is striving to make a repeat appearance. The Terps lost to Oklahoma last year 7-0 and have finished their conference schedule with a 4-0-1 mark. Duke, currently sporting a 2-0 record, still must play South Carolina and North Carolina. If the Blue Devils win both, they'll show a 4-0 mark and will head for Miami.

The opposition is bound to be easier than last year. Oklahoma, the perennial Big Seven champion, is ineligible, having played in the game the past year. That leaves Nebraska and Kansas State still in contention. Nebraska plays Oklahoma Saturday and State goes against Colorado. Should State win and Nebraska lose, a distinct possibility, the Wildcats would get the bid, although the two teams would show identical 4-2 records — because State beat the Cornhuskers earlier in the year.

SPORTS IN BRIEF
TENNIS
SYDNEY, Australia—Tony Trabert of Cincinnati was eliminated in the third round of the New South Wales tournament by Don Candy of Australia, 4-6, 7-5, 10-12, 6-3, 7-5.

RACING
NEW YORK — Social Outcast ($920) won the $87,650 Gallant Fox Handicap at Jamaica.

BALTIMORE — Proud Pomp ($320) scored a nose victory over Reddy Ro in the Marquette Stakes at Pimlico.

Pottstown: Pittsburgh City—West-inhouse 6-0, Allegheny; Philadelphia Catholic — South 6-0, St. James; Susquehanna—Danville 8-0, Lock Haven; and Keystone—Sunbury 4-0, Pottsville.

Dallastown	0	5	0	.0

Saturday's Scores

Biglerville, 20; Kennard-Dale, 7.
Susquehannock, 32; Dallastown, 12.

Biglerville High ended its football season by defeating Kennard-Dale, 20-7, in a rough, hard-fought battle Saturday afternoon at Pawi Grove.

The win gave Bill Coradetti a 3-and-5 record for his first season as head coach of the Canners, who bounced back after having lost their first four games by overwhelming scores. In their first year in the Laurel League Conference, they finished in third place with a 3-and-2 record, behind Littlestown and West York, who tied for the championship.

It was a bruising battle, which saw two boys ejected for rough play. The game was marred by frequent penalties, fumbles, and pass interceptions. In the end, the effective line play of the Canners, which hobbled the hosts' ground attack, was the decisive factor.

All four touchdowns came on long plays, and none on sustained drives. Bryant Roe, the tall and swift Biglerville right halfback, was the leading ground gainer of the day. Roe was returning to combat after missing the last two games because of illness.

The visitors took the opening kickoff, and drove to the Kennard-Dale 25. But a 15-yard penalty stalled the attack, and tackle Ken Pitzer punted. Another opportunity was presented a few minutes later, when

As the last period opened, Kennard-Dale drove to the Biglerville 17. But Roe recovered a fumble, to end this last threat. The Canners drove upfield, with Roe gaining 38 yards on one play, and reached the hosts' 5-yard line as the game ended.

Manager Plays

Nevin Frantz, who has served as manager of the Biglerville team for three years, was rewarded for his services by finally getting to play. He was sent in as a halfback for the last two plays.

The Lineups:

Take a good looking exterior, a modern well-planned interior containing plenty of centrally located closet space—and with space for two bedrooms on the first floor and two more on the second; add these features all together and you have "The Wood," especially suitable for a growing family.

If the plan of "The Wood" appeals to you but you don't have sufficient building funds now on hand to have the entire house constructed, you can easily arrange to build your home in stages. The house proper—containing the bedroom, living room, kitchen, bath and optional room—can be built first. Later on, you can have the utility room and attached garage added on.

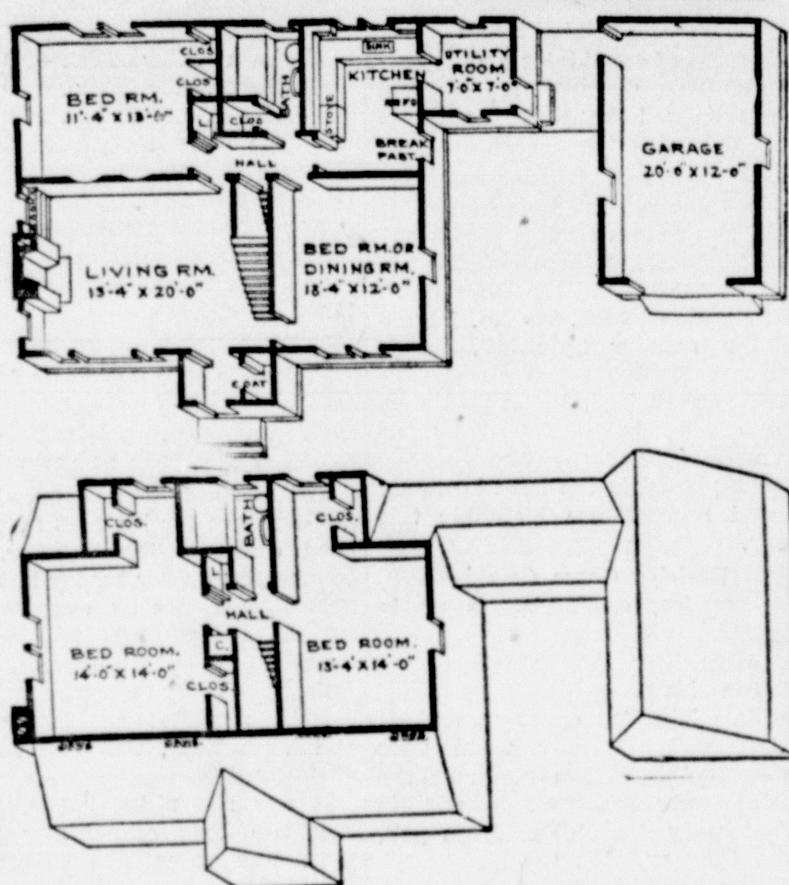

Of course, the second floor does not have to be completed at the time the house is originally constructed, either. You can have this work performed when it best suits your convenience and your pocketbook.

Whether you plan to have "The Wood" entirely constructed at one time or prefer to have it built in stages, as suggested, you want to be sure to obtain a lot large enough to hold the house plus attached garage. Since overall measurements are 60' x 26' you'll need at least an 80-foot lot. Measurements of the house proper are only 33' x 26'. Cubage of the house is 17,800 feet; cubage of the garage is 4,100 feet.

In "The Wood" you can have a formal dining room if you so desire—or you can use the back section of the living room as a dining area. Whichever arrangement best suits your convenience, you're certain to put the pleasant, well-lighted breakfast area to good use.

The living room is so situated and planned that it's not necessary to walk through it to get from one part of "The Wood" to another. Comfortable and attractive, the room has a large picture window in its front wall and two windows at either side of the fireplace in the left wall. A bookcase extending from the fireplace to the back wall is a suggested touch that is both practical and decorative.

In addition to the extra bedroom space provided on the second floor of "The Wood," there's an abundance of sure-to-be-welcomed storage space. The left bedroom has two unusually spacious closets, plus two under the eaves storage drawers; the right bedroom has one extra large closet and two storage drawers. There also is a second-floor linen closet and a general purpose closet opening on the central hallway.

CHARGES FLY IN LABOR DISPUTE

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—The big New York Shipbuilding Co., closed down in a labor dispute, has charged the City of Camden with failing to provide adequate protection from what the company calls union violence.

The firm asked Camden city and county officials to enlist the aid of state agencies to provide "adequate protection to the shipyard employees and property."

In telegrams to Gov. Robert B. Meyner, state Atty. Gen. Grover C. Richman and Camden officials, the firm said the city would be held "fully liable for any damages already sustained or which may be sustained."

The yards were closed down Thursday although 2,000 employees of sure-to-be-welcomed storage space. The left bedroom has two unusually spacious closets, plus two under the eaves storage drawers; the right bedroom has one extra large

DULLES WOULD USE DEMOCRAT AS CONSULTANT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Associates said Friday that Secretary of State Dulles is prepared to name a Democrat as consultant on foreign policies if Democratic leaders put forth a qualified man.

Dulles himself served as a Republican consultant to Democratic Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Democratic officials in previous years.

Since the election of Democratic majorities for the Congress convening in January, there has been speculation whether Dulles would adopt such a pattern of bipartisan relationship for the present Republican administration.

It appears now that he is willing to do so if that action seems desirable to the Democratic leadership. He does not, himself, intend to take the initiative in proposing some Democratic expert on foreign policy to join the State Department staff.

In any move of that sort he re-

DENT SAYS HIS PARTY MAY USE GOP MANEUVER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said Friday his party may resort to a Republican precedent if it runs into trouble on Senate confirmation of top level state jobs.

Republicans are in a position to block appointments by Gov.-elect George M. Leader which require Senate confirmation. A two-thirds majority is required.

"We may simply do what the Republicans did four years ago," Dent told a newsman. "If a man isn't confirmed, we may appoint him again after adjournment."

Says GOP Set Precedent

Dent said Republicans established that precedent during the 1951 Legislature when the GOP-dominated Senate refused to confirm M. F. Draemel, first appointed forests and waters secretary by former Gov. James H. Duff, to the same job under Gov. John S. Fine.

The refusal came in the closing hours of the session. Immediately after the Legislature adjourned, Draemel was reappointed to the $15,000 a year job under a formal ruling of the state Justice Department.

The retired admiral served only a month afterwards before being replaced by the present secretary, S. S. Lewis, but the precedent was established.

"Same Consideration"

"What's to stop us from doing the same thing?" Dent asked. Then, when asked to comment on a statement by Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader in 1953, that the GOP will oppose any Democratic plan "to play politics" with top state jobs, Dent said:

"They (the Republicans) will get the same consideration for minority representation that we had for the past 16 years—none."

Dent said Democrats won't "play any more politics" than the GOP did in recent years.

Rayburn To Have Talk With President

BONHAM, Tex. (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) says he will go to Washington tomorrow to talk with President Eisenhower about U. S. foreign policy.

The veteran Democrat, expected to be House speaker in the new Congress, said, "The President wants us to tell him how to get along in foreign affairs, and I'll have to admit that the President needs some help."

portedly desires the Democratic leadership to select man in whom the Democratic leaders would have confidence and who could speak in the councils of the State Department with an effective voice.

President Eisenhower has said since the election that he will seek a bipartisan development of foreign policy and will consult with Democratic leaders. The Democrats likewise have been talking about cooperation in this field.

Bulbs Easy To Flower In Winter Window Gardens

Bulbs which blossom in the early spring do not demand sunlight of maximum intensity, therefore they thrive and blossom indoors in light insufficient for most flowering plants.

Varieties which flower earliest in the garden are easiest to flower indoors as a rule. Crocuses, grape hyacinths, narcissi and hyacinths are less difficult than tulips. They can be grown in bulb fiber, in bowls without drainage.

Bulb fibre can be prepared by mixing peat moss which has been put through the kitchen sieve, with one-fourth its volume in charcoal, and one-eighth fine oyster shell or bone meal. Fill a decorative bowl with the fibre, saturate it, and set the bulbs in the fibre up to their necks.

Keep the bowl in dim light where the temperature stays below 55 degrees, watering the fibre regularly. If it dries out the flower buds may be destroyed. Root growth will form first, then top growth will begin. As soon as top growth is well started, take the bowl to a window where it will have all the light possible, and a temperature between 55 and 70 degrees. A picture window facing north which is not shaded from reflected light of the northern sky is a preferred location for most flowering bulbs and foliage plants. The light which such a window admits is adequate and it has the advantage of an even and cool temperature. In a room which varies between 70 and 80 degrees in daylight hours, the temperature close to a north window will often be 10 to 20 degrees lower.

A picture window facing south, on the other hand, which gets the full impact of the winter sun will usually be subject to extreme variations of temperature.

East and west picture windows are likely to be more favorable to plants than one facing south. Artificial light can be used to supplement daylight which is insufficient.

By using a photographic light meter, which nearly all amateur photographers now possess, you can check the light from your best window to see whether the daylight is adequate for the plants you wish to grow.

An intensity of 200 foot candles for twelve hours a day is sufficient to develop the flowers of bulbs. To measure the light that falls on the

Harriman Plurality Is Placed At 12,148

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov.-elect Averell Harriman today held a plurality of 12,148 over his Republican opponent, U.S. Sen. Irving M. Ives.

The lead was based on official canvass figures in 36 of the state's 62 counties and on election inspectors' reports in the others.

The latest canvass reports came Saturday from Saratoga and Onondaga counties. The canvassing will continue throughout the state.

In the contest for state comptroller, Democrat-Liberal Arthur Levitt jumped Saturday to an unofficial lead of 13,849 votes over Republican Frank del Vecchio.

This had been the closest race in the state.

YOUNG MOTHER GUILTY; KILLED CRIPPLED CHILD

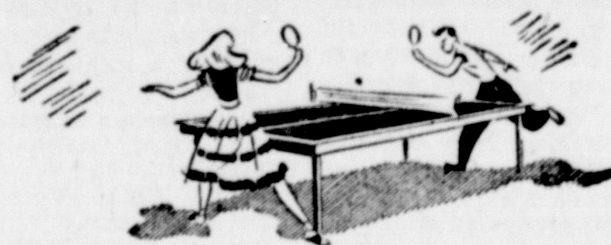

RINGGOLD, Ga. (AP)—A young mother of five children, whose divorced husband is in prison, has been convicted of murder in the death of her 2½-year-old paralytic daughter.

An all-male Catoosa county superior court jury returned the guilty verdict against Mrs. Joyce McNeese, 24, Thursday night and recommended mercy, which required that Judge Freeman McClure sentence her to "confinement at hard labor for the rest of her normal life."

Mrs. McNeese, married at 16, was charged with slaying Donna Jane McNeese, "by beating, choking and smothering and by other means to the grand jury unknown," Sept. 6.

Donna Jane was one of twins, the youngest children of the McNeeses, and was paralyzed from the waist down, testimony showed. The defendant's father, Lloyd Gordy, told newsmen the child also was blind in one eye.

After she was sentenced to life imprisonment, Mrs. McNeese, a waitress and cook, told McClure she did not want another trial. "I don't care what they do," she sobbed.

PURINA SOW and PIG CHOW CAN HELP YOU!

Every pig farrowed represents about 2½ bushels of corn to the average hog man. But at the Purina Research Farm, Sow and Pig Chow does the job with only about 1 bushel of corn. Multiply the number of pigs farrowed on your place this spring by 1½ bushels of corn. That's how much corn Sow and Pig Chow could have helped you save. If you feed barley or milo, figure barley at 85% the value of corn, milo at 90%.

But that's not all! Besides helping grain go farther, Sow and Pig Chow has what it takes to help sows farrow big, husky litters and have milk to start 'em right. Come in. Let us give you more facts about Sow and Pig Chow.

DEADLY SKIDS ARE LESS LIKELY ON CONCRETE

The difference between a deadly skid and a safe, quick stop is often the pavement. You can stop faster, even in the rain, on concrete. That's because concrete's gritty surface provides uniformly high skid resistance, wet or dry.

Besides permitting better vehicle control, concrete makes night driving safer too! Its light-colored surface reflects up to four times more light than dark-colored pavements. You see farther and have more time to slow down or stop.

Concrete roads also are safer because they're free from hazardous ruts, washboard wrinkles and raveled edges.

It's worth remembering that when the weather is rough you're much safer on concrete, the skid-resistant safety pavement.

POLITICAL ROW BREWING OVER TV IN BRITAIN

LONDON (AP)—A political row is brewing over Britain's plans for commercial television.

Laborite leaders are seeking to censure the Conservative government in the House of Commons. They say the three commercial channels due to open next summer will be dominated by Conservative political interests.

Britain so far has only one TV channel—the nationwide noncommercial program served up by the government—sponsored British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC). It operates around five hours each day.

The new stations will operate all day. They will carry programs provided by four "contractors" in tapers with plugs paid for by advertisers. They will not carry sponsored programs on the American pattern.

Party Interests Involved

The row centers in the Independent Television Authority (ITA) set up by the government to supervise the commercial network and choose the contractors. It picked these four:

A group headed by financier Harold Drayton and Lord Rothmere's Associated Newspapers; another headed by theatrical agent Maurice Winnick and newspaper baron Lord Kemsley; another by the Granada movie theater chain, and the fourth by financier Sir Robert Renwick and Norman Collins, former BBC television chief.

That, said the laborites, put television power firmly in the hands of Conservative party interests. They stuck by that line even when Sidney Bernstein, boss of Granada, revealed he is a paid-up member of the Labor party.

VIET-MINH SAYS FRENCH FORBID SHIP ENTRIES

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—A Viet-minh radio broadcast said Friday the French had bowed to Red demands and issued orders forbidding entry of French ships in Viet-minh territorial waters.

The broadcast said the order was issued by Gen. Pierre de Brebisson, head of the French delegation to the Mixed Armistice Commission in Communist-controlled northern Viet Nam.

This was the latest development in the quarrel between the French and the Communist-led Vietminh developing from the plight of from 20,000 to 40,000 Roman Catholic refugees who want to flee from the Communist-controlled areas around Phat Diem and Bui Chu in the north.

French official sources here described as "very tense" the atmosphere between France and the Vietminh over the situation. The Vietminh broadcast claimed Gen. De Brebisson had also issued orders forbidding propaganda inciting the Catholic population of the north to quit their homes.

He was said to have also forbidden passage of all planes except those already authorized over Communist-controlled areas in the north.

The Vietminh radio carried an-

WINS DAMAGES IN U.S. COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Federal Court jury Friday awarded $85,509 in damages to Mrs. Marilyn W. Schwartz, 23, of Hatboro, on claims arising from the death of her husband.

The husband, Edward, a Temple University student, was killed on Oct. 29, 1952, in a crash on Rt. 422, west of Pottstown.

A truck in which he was riding ran into the rear end of a parked truck owned by the Texas Co. Mrs. Schwartz' attorney held that the other truck was parked on the road and had no warning flares around it. The Texas Co. said the truck lights were on, but admitted there were no flares.

Mrs. Schwartz is the mother of two small children.

NARROW HEART VALVE WITH A "HEART-TUCK"

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Taking a tuck inside the heart looks promising for overcoming one dangerous kind of heart trouble, three surgeons said today.

The tucking could narrow a heart valve which became too wide because of rheumatic fever, a big heart killer disease. The widened valve lets blood shoot backward into the heart instead of being sent through the body when the heart beats.

The tucking operation can narrow the valve ring to help the valve close tighter when the heart beats.

It is done by cutting away a wedge of the outer wall of the muscular wall of the heart, at the proper spot. When this opening is pulled together by sewing, the inner wall of the heart is crowded or gathered together, to create a tuck or pleat which faces inward and closes over part of the faulty valve.

The heart-tuck method was described to the American College of Surgeons, opening a week-long clinical session here, by Doctors Elliott S. Hurvitt, Paul W. Hofert and Ruthven Ferreria, of Montefiore Hospital, New York.

Seaman Killed At Railroad Station

BAINBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—A south-bound train struck and killed Glen J. Gravel, 18-year-old apprentice seaman from R. I. Tamaqua, Pa., in the Pennsylvania railroad station at nearby Perryville Friday night.

A Navy spokesman said Gravel, a student in the hospital corps school here, was killed instantly when he darted in front of the train as it sped through the station.

Companions said Gravel stepped from behind a northbound train into the path of the southbound train, not hearing a warning shout from the others.

Gravel, who had been in the Navy only six months, was believed on his way home for the weekend. The Navy listed Gravel's mother, Mrs. Marjorie Almo Gravel, as next of kin.

engineering and design changes this year as we did last," said Ivan L. Wiles, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors. "Yet we have retained the outstanding styling features that made Buick the third best selling car in the nation. Our new styling, plus the spectacular increase in performance resulting from higher compression engines and our new variable pitch Dynaflo makes the Buick the greatest value we have ever offered the car-buying public."

The panoramic windshield, pioneered by Buick last year, has been retained for 1955 along with the sloping doorbelt line and full rear wheel cutout on all two-door models.

New tubeless tires, which offer greater protection from blowouts, are standard on all models except those equipped with wire wheels.

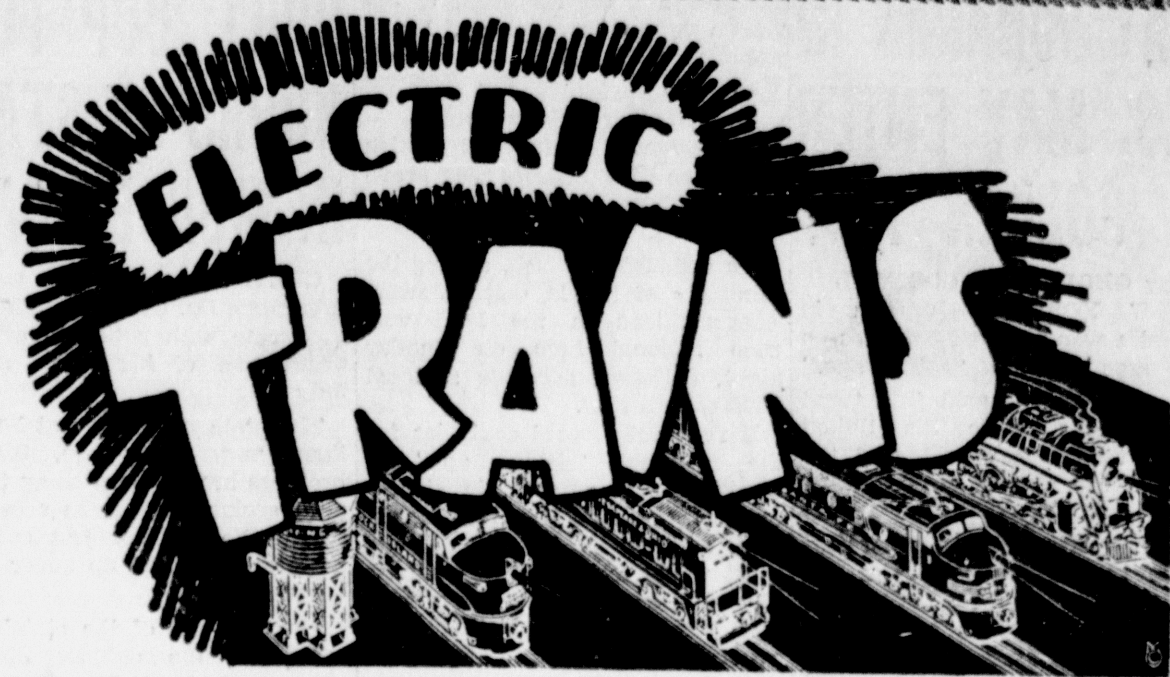

Power brakes, offered as optional equipment on all models, have been redesigned for smoother operation. A new air suspension principle gives fully adequate braking under all conditions.

Improved power steering is standard equipment on the Roadmaster and Super, and optional on all other models. Previously power steering was standard on the Roadmaster only.

SAY JUDAISM IN U.S. MAY ENTER A 'GOLDEN AGE'

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP)—Judaism in America was pictured today as on the verge of a new "golden age."

Leading rabbis said this trend already has made the United States the largest center of the faith in the world.

And they reported:

1. A growing religious resurgence in synagogues across the land.
2. Rapid expansion in religious schools, libraries, seminaries, and Jewish fraternal and benevolent organizations.
3. A broad, reawakened interest in Jewish religious insights and scholarship.

"Bulwark Of Faith"

"Not even Israel is the bulwark of our faith today as is the United States," said Rabbi Joseph Rauch, of Louisville, Ky.

He and other leaders were here for a series of services, ceremonies and meetings centered on the 1954 celebration of the 300th anniversary of America's first Jewish settlement.

Recalling conditions which sparked a great flowering of Judaism in medieval times, Rabbi Solomon E. Starrels, of Savannah, Ga., said:

"Another Golden Age"

"The fourth century of Jewish life in the United States may prove to be another golden age of Jewish civilization."

He and Rabbi Rauch, among the ministers of the 14 oldest Jewish congregations in the land who were honored here on Sunday night, delivered sermons at local temples Saturday.

It required several centuries for the medieval "golden age" of Jewish life to emerge, in eighth-century Spain, Rabbi Starrels said, adding:

"It would look as if in the past 300 years on these shores we have been going through a similar process of development and growth."

Increase Of Institutions

He noted the increase and affluence of Jewish cultural institutions, the expanding libraries, academies and publication societies, and said:

"The influence of the synagogue has spread and deepened. A fine spirit of interfaith relations prevails in our own land."

All this, he said, may herald another Judaism's "most brilliant and most productive eras."

GRILL COP FOUR HOURS ON STAND IN MURDER CASE

CLEVELAND (AP)—How well did handsome Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard cooperate with police in their investigation of his wife's slaying July 4?

The state contends that he gave them very little help, that his brothers hurried him away to hospital seclusion, that he refused to take a lie detector test and that he later clammed up under police questioning.

Through one of the state's own witnesses, the defense made a strong effort at Dr. Sheppard's murder trial on Friday to knock down that contention.

Policeman On Stand

The witness was Fred Drenkhan, a good-looking police officer from suburban Bay Village, where the murder occurred.

Drenkhan, who appeared to have a mental filing cabinet, had been a good witness for the state. The chief defense attorney, William J. Corrigan, took over on cross-examination.

He asked the patrolman if he and two sheriff's deputies hadn't gone to the Bay View Hospital, where Dr. Sheppard was confined, and questioned the osteopath Thursday, four days after the slaying.

"Yes," Drenkhan answered.

Not Finished In 4 Hours

Corrigan also asked the witness if Dr. Sheppard hadn't told him he "wanted to help as much as possible because he was interested in the apprehension of the murderer more than anything else in the world."

The patrolman acknowledged that this was so; also that Dr. Sheppard talked with officers the next day and re-enacted his version of the murder night.

The 30-year-old defendant is accused of bludgeoning his wife Marilyn, 31, to death in the bedroom of their lakefront home. Dr. Sheppard claims an unknown intruder committed the crime.

Corrigan questioned the witness for almost four hours and said he had still further questions to ask today when the trial resumes.

KILLED IN CRASH

ALBION, N. Y. (AP)—Burt Hart, 74, of Kent, was fatally injured Friday when the automobile he was driving and another collided on Route 18, near this Orleans County village.

The United States consumes 60 per cent of the world's coffee exports and 40 per cent of the cocoa exports.

SEEKS AID TO HOLD BUSINESS

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov.-elect Averell Harriman has indicated he will seek the cooperation of other northern Democratic governors to check the shift of northern industry to cheaper labor areas.

Harriman announced on Friday he will meet with five governors and listed the federal minimum wage as one of the topics to be discussed.

During his campaign, Harriman repeatedly said a boost in the federal minimum wage would tend to eliminate what he termed "unfair competition" from low wage areas and thereby check "the flight of industry."

Asks Wage Boost

He proposed that the present national minimum wage of 75 cents an hour be raised to $1.25.

Harriman also recently called upon governors to work together on matters of mutual interest involving federal legislation.

Harriman told a news conference he expects to meet with Govs. Robert Mayner of New Jersey and G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and governors-elect Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, Edmund Muskie of Maine and George M. Leader of Pennsylvania. All are Democrats.

The meetings will be started by a luncheon with Gov. Meyner tomorrow at Harriman's Farms Estate in Orange County. In general, Harriman said, his discussion with the governors will concern matters of "mutual interest."

The Hawaiian Islands were unknown to the Western world until 1778 when they were discovered by Capt. James Cook.

Young Czech Is Ordered Deported

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Leo Boehm, 26-year-old Czechoslovakian-born construction worker, faces deportation today on the charge that he did not state he was a member of the Communist Party at the time he applied for a visa to enter this country.

Immigration and naturalization service hearing officer Francis J. Pompei handed down the decision here on Friday on the basis of testimony he said was given at a hearing Sept. 7.

Pompi said that Boehm admitted he was a member of the Communist Party but did not list it on his visa application and had therefore entered the country fraudulently. He ordered him deported under the provisions of the Immigration and Naturalization Act.

USE MINE AS BOMB SHELTER

HASTINGS, Pa. (AP)—More than 300 residents of this western Pennsylvania community who spent an hour at the bottom of a coal mine during a mock atom bomb raid agreed today the test was a success.

Just 15 minutes after the sirens sounded at 2 p.m. on Friday, the participants found themselves 500 feet underground in a slope mine. The mine is something like a cave and gradually dips hundreds of feet into the earth's bowels.

Sponsors of the test say they believe it was the first of its kind. Although it had been in preparation for weeks, the residents of this community of 2,000 did not know the day or hour. Those who did not go to the mine, remained indoors.

Many who participated in the test actually had never been in a mine even though they live in a coal mining area. They found the air pure and a cache of food, medical supplies and an adequate supply of water.

The idea for the test came from the town's Rotary Club. Observers said it may go a long way in setting up Civilian Defense plans for coal mining areas.

A total attendance of 85 million — half the U.S. population — is estimated by the international Assn. of Fairs and Expositions for the 2,000-odd county, regional and state fairs held this year across the United States.

Only the United States and New Zealand have reduced the work week from 48 to 40 hours for most workmen.

The '55 FORD is here

with styling inspired by the Thunderbird

The new '55 Ford is unmistakably the fine car of its field. It brings you new Trigger-Torque Power... a new Angle-Poised Ride... and Thunderbird Styling... in 4 brilliant new lines.

One look at the new '55 Ford and you'll see why it's finer—why everyone's so excited about it. The brilliant styling of the 16 body selections bears the distinctive mark of the Thunderbird—Ford's new personal car that has created such a sensation all over the nation. You can see the resemblance in Ford's new, longer, lower silhouette—that huge wrap-around windshield—the wider, distinctive grille—everywhere you look.

New Trigger-Torque power from 3 new, mighty engines

Take one Test Drive and you'll discover the thrill of lightning getaways—the safety of split-second passing-power. For all Ford's 3 engines for '55 bring you new Trigger-Torque Power—all are the mightiest ever offered in Ford Cars. There's a new 162-h.p. Y-block V-8 with higher (7.6 to 1) compression ratio. The mighty 182-h.p. Y-block Special V-8, optional with new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic, is available in Fairlane and Station Wagon models. And there's also the new 120-h.p. I-block Six—the most modern Six in the industry.

New Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive

A new automatic getaway gear gives you instant pickup for safer passing, faster starts. This smoother new Fordomatic is offered with all three of Ford's new engines.

New Angle-Poised Ride

You'll also find the smoothest Ford ride ever! Ford has re-engineered Ball-Joint Front Suspension—tilted it to absorb shocks from the front as well as up-and-down shocks. This cuts down road-joint jar.

Own it now and spend a full year with the newest!

Steady Nerves, Stout Hearts Are Needed

LEXINGTON, Mo. (AP) — Former President Truman says free countries can by adequate defense measures make it clear that aggression will be doomed to failure.

"If we are to succeed in maintaining a free world, we must have steady nerves and stout hearts," he said last night at the 75th anniversary ceremonies of Westworth Military Academy.

He said military strength is needed to back up the nation's moral and educational strength.

Disillusioned Red Dies In Mass. Home

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — Fred E. Beal, who served four years of a 17-year prison sentence for conspiracy to murder in the fatal shooting of the Gastonia, N.C., police chief during a 1929 textile strike, is dead.

He died of a heart attack yesterday at his home. He was 57.

CHURCH NAMES PRESIDENT

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Evangelical United Brethren Church has elected William M. Fox of Connelville, Pa., to be its president for a four-year term.

Also chosen Saturday night at the group's national conference were Harvey P. Kissinger, Reading, Pa., second vice president; Harry Blanset, Johnstown, Pa., treasurer; A. C. Spangle, Campbelltown, Pa., eastern area director, and Lewis Crigen, Warren, Pa., east central area director.

It requires 500 to 1,000 gallons of water to produce a ton of bread.

HORST BELIEVES DEMS WILL KEEP GOP SALES TAX

HARRISBURG (AP) — Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, said today he "will not be too surprised to find Democrats continuing the sales tax, despite their repeated promises that it will not be re-enacted."

"How else will the new administration raise the 300 million dollars which it must find to do the things it has pledged itself to do?" Horst asked in a prepared address to the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

Democratic Gov.-Elect George M. Leader promised flatly during the election campaign the state's one per cent sales tax netting around 100 millions would be dropped Aug. 31 if he were elected. Republicans argued it was necessary to finance education.

Horst said that "divisions within our ranks" was a factor in the GOP defeat on Nov. 2.

Wants United Party Predicting the lessons learned would aid the party in a comeback in the 1955 municipal elections, Horst said:

"We must have a united party if we are to win back the confidence of the people. We can no longer afford the luxury of internal bickering."

Mrs. Gaynelle M. Dixon, Butler, retiring president of the council, also attributed the Republican defeat "in a large part" to a factional fight within the party.

Mrs. Dixon was defeated at the election for secretary of internal affairs by Miss Genevieve Blatt, Democrat.

As results of the election were analyzed, Horst considered a demand by Andrew J. Gleason, Johnstown, a member of the state Executive Committee, for removal of G. Mason Owlett as Republican national committeeman for Pennsylvania.

Blames Owlett, PMA Gleason wrote Horst over the weekend one of the strongest factors in the GOP defeat was the activities of Owlett and the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Assn. which he heads.

"The people have in their minds," Gleason wrote, "that the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Assn. and Owlett represent the same ultra-conservative philosophy. If the people make a choice between a liberal group and an ultra-conservative group, they will choose a liberal group."

Horst said he would refer "Andy's blast against Owlett" to the state Executive Committee but that no meeting is presently scheduled. He declined comment on the letter until he has received it.

Owlett also withheld immediate comment. An aide said he believed Owlett would be agreeable to putting the question before the state committee.

Has 2 Years To Serve Owlett has two years left to a four-year term as national committeeman. He was elected to the post by the state committee.

Owlett, in another prepared speech to the Republican women, said the party was not repudiated, either in the state or nation.

"I believe," he said, "the recent setback was the result of a combination of many factors in which it is perhaps only fair to say that probably all of us have had some

FIREMEN FROM MT. HOLLY FIGHT 2 BIG BLAZES

Mt. Holly Springs firemen spent 10 hours battling a $30,000 barn fire and a blaze which destroyed a combination home Saturday. Both fires were in rural sections.

The barn fire was discovered by children on the Calvin Zinn farm, on the road between the Governor Rittner Highway and the Walnut Bottom Rd., at 11 a.m.

Flames raced through the frame, slate roofed structure, destroying a tractor, threshing machine, a new binder, a corn planter, three drills, 15 tons of hay, 10 tons of straw and 600 bushels of corn in an attached crib along with the 40 by 80 foot barn.

Firemen tore down a blazing hog pen to keep flames from the farm house and managed to save a nearby chickenhouse. Fire Chief George Peterson, estimating damage at $30,000, said the barn was covered by insurance but that the machinery and crops were not insured.

Mt. Holly's two pumpers were assisted by fire trucks from Newville and Shippensburg. The Union Rural Co. of Carlisle was called later but was not needed. The Friendship Co. of Carlisle sent a truck to stand by in the local firehouse during the blaze.

Heat Melts Coins About 3:30 Saturday afternoon, a short time after one of the borough pumpers had returned to the firehouse to relieve the Friendship firemen, an alarm came in from the combination home and barn of L. C. Fry, Brushstown, Penn. Township, on the road between Centerville and Pine Grove Furnace.

Fry and his son were laying linoleum. Fire Chief Peterson said, and spilled oil as they lifted an oil stove to put the floor covering under it. The oil blazed and swept through the structure.

Peterson said Fry lost an unspecified sum of money he had hidden in the house, including a baking powder can full of dimes. The can was raked out of the embers later but the dimes had melted from the heat.

Friendship firemen returned from Carlisle to stand-by in the local firehouse again while this blaze was in progress. Mount Holly firemen finally called it a day at 9 p.m. Saturday.

of the 80 seats in the one-house legislature. Labor held 37. In the old house the Nationalists held 50 seats to the Laborites' 30.

FREE NATIONS MUSTN'T BE FOOLED BY REDS: JENNER

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) said today the Soviet Embassy here directed establishment of Communist spy rings in "every part of the government" and within the United Nations.

Jenner said "if free nations must not be fooled again by the Kremlin's slogan of peaceful co-existence."

The Indiana senator is chairman of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee and sponsor of a resolution calling for a break in diplomatic relations with Russia.

He made the statement in announcing publication by the subcommittee of another volume of testimony taken in public hearings on Communist strategy and tactics.

Referring to reported Soviet talk of "peaceful co-existence," Jenner said "we let them fool us in 1933 with that phony slogan and re-establish their embassy spy center here."

He said the late Premier Stalin promised, in return for diplomatic recognition by this country, to refrain from "interfering with our government." But, Jenner went on, after Russia won that recognition 21 years ago, Stalin broke his promise.

Wide Infiltration
"It was in that period that the first secret Communist spy ring in our government was established," Jenner said, referring to an alleged red cell in the Agriculture Department. He added:

"From that small beginning the Communists, directed from the Soviet Union's Embassy, expanded their spy network into every part of the government and moved from there into the United Nations."

"Over the years they have infiltrated schools and colleges, labor organizations, the entertainment field, certain activities of the armed forces—in fact, every phase of governmental and civil activity where they could gain a foothold."

Anti-Communist laws, Jenner said, can not reach "the arch conspirators in the embassies and consulates of the Iron Curtain governments."

But, he said, "we can . . . sever diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union and its satellites and seal off the spy centers in the embassies here."

LODGE BLASTS VISHINSKY ATOM POOL DEMANDS

By TGM HOGGE
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States says the Soviets will have to trim their demands for changes if they want to participate in President Eisenhower's peaceful atom pool plan.

Russian objections to the proposed pool were presented to the UN Friday night by Soviet Delegate Andrei V. Vishinsky. He said Moscow would like to take part but on conditions the West so far refused to accept.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. describes Vishinsky's speech before the Assembly's main Political Committee as "a magnificent display of forensic fireworks but very little substance to them."

Lodge said he would make a detailed reply early next week.

Vishinsky Charges
Vishinsky charged the United States and its atomic partners reduced the original Eisenhower proposal to a mere shell by:

1. Trying to set up an international atomic agency independent of the Security Council. The Soviets want the body subject to the council, in which they have a veto.

2. Attempting to make the agency a clearing house for moving fissionable materials from one land to another. The Russian delegate branded this an infringement of national sovereignty.

3. Sponsoring a resolution which makes no provision for a prior pledge among the nations concerned not to use nuclear weapons in the future. Vishinsky added, however, that the Kremlin would make such a pledge a condition for joining the agency.

"Failure To Reflect"
4. Failure to reflect the intent of the Eisenhower proposal by not considering methods for preventing use of atomic materials for warlike purposes.

In his brief reply, Lodge said the United States has no objection to the atomic agency keeping liaison with the Security Council—provided the project does not get "bogged down in vetoes."

Commenting on Vishinsky's call for a ban on atomic weapons, Lodge said the question was up to the Disarmament Commission and had no place in the Eisenhower proposal.

Attempt To Assess
Western diplomats viewed Vishinsky's speech as a strategic attempt to assess the West's flexibility on the atomic question.

REMOVE TOOTH FROM LUNG OF GEORGIA BOY

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Six-year-old Edwin Durden is a mighty proud youngster today. He has just had a tooth extracted from his right lung.

It took a team of doctors using special surgical equipment flown from Philadelphia to do the trick.

This is how it happened: One of Edwin's teeth wiggled loose several weeks ago and his father H. E. Durden tied a string around it and yanked.

The surgeon in charge at Macon Hospital, who asked his name not be used, said the tooth was "too smooth and hard to grasp with ordinary forceps and also was embedded very deeply in the lung."

The George P. Pilling Co. in Philadelphia, specialists in bronchoscopic instruments, made three special bead-type forceps and airmailed them to Macon. Edwin was operated on and the tooth removed in 20 minutes. The lung collapsed but the surgeon said nature would repair it "good as new."

Thomas Edison was 32 years old when he produced the first commercially practical electric light.
